🪪 Objective

I am a final year ICT student seeking an opportunity as a Full Stack developer. I bring a solid foundation in ICT, bolstered by practical experience gained during my internship at the Sri Lankan Police Headquarters in the IT Division. Eager to transition into a Full Stack Developer role, I am equipped with additional expertise in Node.js, MongoDB, PostgreSQL, and .NET. I am actively seeking a challenging position in a dynamic and collaborative environment, where I can leverage my comprehensive skill set to contribute to end-to-end development projects. My goal is to further enhance my capabilities as a Full Stack Developer, gain valuable experience, and deliver top-tier performance.
